Lavinia Huțişoru Dumitriu,

Might be

I should have told you that true Love,
Is coming only from Above,
And you should know, and understand:
„This kind of Love, will never end!”

We might have met long time ago,
We might have loved each other so,
And that could be the reason why
We meet with tears in the eye.

And this is why I feel the pain
Which is not mine, but hurts in vain,
And sorrow when I feel, I know
That I should never let you go.
